Southwestern Development Company to Relocate Operations Retains Development Advisors

(Charlotte, NC. September 22, 2008). A well-established development company based in the Southwest is planning the consolidation and relocation of their operations including headquarters offices. Development Advisors has been retained to provide location analysis, site selection and to lead economic development negotiations.

The company is considering developable sites that will provide for its long-term expansion. Several locations in Texas have been short-listed.

The project contemplates a significant new capital investment of approximately $25 million and the movement of over 300 jobs. Financial support improving project IRR, infrastructure and the company's competitive international market position are vitally important.

A decision is expected in mid to late-2009. New operations are expected to begin in mid to late 2010.
